DESERTING CARRANZA TROOPS GO WITH HIM

Takes His Departure With More Men Than He Has When He Entered Town; Trevino Apparently Asleep at the Switch.

(The Evening Herald Special Wire.)
Washington, Sept. 21.—An official account of Villa's raid on Chihuahua City last Saturday received at the war department today from Brigadier General Bell at El Paso, says the bandit chief, captured some of Carranza's soldiers and other valuable loads of arms and ammunition, liberated 200 prisoners from the penitentiary and made off after being joined by from 1,000 to 1,500 soldiers of the Carranza nation.

According to General Bell's information, Villa himself went into the city with a large force of men and took possession of the city. He then made off with a large number of men and a large amount of arms and ammunition.

The raid on Chihuahua City was a major victory for Villa and his forces. It showed that Villa was still a powerful force in the region and that he was still a threat to the Carranza government.
